Let's Start!

John and Sally get back to Cambridge after a long day. Are they tired?

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to do after a long day? Have a shower? Watch TV?
- How long does it take for you to get home from work or school?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.
- I can talk about travel.
- I can talk about transportation.

Let's Explore!

Sally and John get back to Cambridge.

* When you "get back" to a place, you return or arrive home.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: What a great day!
John: Yeah. Want to take a taxi home?
Sally: No, we should eat again. I'm hungry.
John: We should go to Pizza Palace.
Sally: The pizzeria by the stadium?
John: Yes. It's through the park.
Sally: Okay. It's a nice night to walk.
John: Let's walk to the square and sit.
Sally: It's summer. There are lots of tourists.
John: We shouldn't go to the tourist spots here for a while.
Sally: We should go back to Boston, too.
John: Yes. There is lots to see. We should use the subway next time.
Sally: We can go on a bus tour and see the sights. There is a boat tour, too.
John: Sounds good.
