Let's Start!

Let's find a shop in the mall! Where is that map?

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you go to malls in other cities? Why or why not?
- How do you find shops in a mall?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things that are probable using should.
- I can ask and say where places are in a building.
- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.

Let's Explore!

John and Sally go up the elevator. What shop are they looking for?

* You "go up" or go down elevators and escalators.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: This is an amazing place! Where is the mall map? It should be around here.
Oh. There it is.

John: Where is the sports shop?

Sally: Right here. It should be on the upper floor.

Guide: Need help?

John: How do we get to Sports Inc.?

Guide: Go up the elevator or the escalator. Get off and go down the hall. Go through the blue metal doors. It should be on the right.

John: Thanks.

Sally: Look, John! Shoes! I like these here. Those are nice, too!

John: The sports shop first!

Sally: Oh! That shop is so cool! Let's go in there!

John: It is nice, but ...

Sally: After Sports Inc.!

Let's Practice!

John wants to go to the sports shop!

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Select all the correct answers.

1. Where is the sports shop?
 - a. It's on the upper floor.
 - b. It's in the elevator.
 - c. It's through the blue doors.

Learning Points

Talking About Things That Are Probable

You can use the modal should to talk about things that are probable.
When something is probable, it may happen or it may not happen.

Statement	Meaning
It should be around here.	It is probably around here.
It should be on the right.	It is likely there.
The mall should be open today.	I'm quite sure the mall is open today.
The map should be on the first floor.	The map is almost certainly on the first floor.

Examples:

- The shop should be on the right.
- The mall map should be around here.
- It should be upstairs.
- It should be on the upper floor.
