Let's Start!

It's time to get the bus home. Let's buy the tickets!

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- How do people move around in your city?
- How do you prefer to travel?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe places in the city.
- I can ask and say where places are.
- I can talk about travel and transportation.

Let's Explore!

Is the bus on time?

* "On time" means on schedule; arriving at the correct time.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: This is a nice old bus station! We can get our tickets at the counter!
John: Two tickets to Cambridge, please.
Clerk: That's $14.
John : Where do we catch the bus?
Clerk: Wait on platform 12. Take the Green Line. Give your tickets to the conductor.
John: When does the bus leave?
Clerk: Buses leave every hour. Get the next bus at 6 o'clock.
John: Thanks. The bus leaves in 55 minutes.
Sally: Ask the clerk where to get some food.
John: Excuse me. Is there a good place to buy food nearby?
Clerk: Look across the street. There's a cafe in the large concrete building.
John: Thanks! We have time to get food. We can ride the bus and eat.

Let's Practice!
