Let's Start!

Do you get lost in new cities? Who do you ask for help?

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Who do you ask for help when you are in a new place?
- What do you do if you can't understand the directions?

Can Do Statements

- I can give directions.
- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.
- I can ask and say where places are.

Let's Explore!

Sally and John are still lost. They need a better map!

* When you are "still lost", you continue to be lost.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: See John, asking for help isn't a bad idea.
John: I guess so. I don't see Exhibition Place.
Sally: Sure this is it!
John: No, this says Convention Place.
Sally: Oh! Turn here!
John: No, go this way!
Sally: Ask the police officer.
John: Alright. Excuse me officer, we are very lost.
Police Officer: How can I help?
John: We're looking for the country fair at Exhibition Place.
Police Officer: You're walking the wrong way.
John: Again!
Police Officer: You have to go back along this street. There is a bank at the intersection. Turn right. Walk straight ahead. You can't miss it!
John: Thank you.
Sally: Look! It's there!
John: Finally!

Let's Practice!

We use the Imperative to give directions.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Which sentences use the Imperative to give directions?
 - a. No, go this way!
 - b. You can't miss it!
 - c. Walk straight ahead.
 - d. Turn right at the next corner.
 - e. You're walking the wrong way.
 - f. Look!
 - g. This says Convention Place.

Let's Practice!

I can help you find the bank!

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentence. Move each word to place it in the correct order.

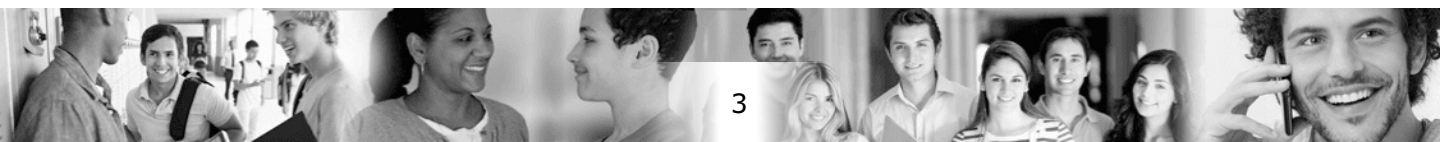

1. ? / can / How / help / I

2. Exhibition / looking / fair / Place / We're / county / the / at / . / for

3. street / You / back / to / along / have / this / . / go

4. is / intersection / a / There / the / . / bank / at

5. this / to / bank, / street / . / take / We / the

Extension Activity

Help a person with directions! You meet a person on the street. Write a short dialogue.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- The person asks you about a place in your area.
- You say they are not going in the right direction.
- Tell them where to go.
- Say street names and use prepositions to help the person find their way.
- Practice your dialogue.

Target Words

- not a bad idea (expression): it's a good plan or thought e.g. Go to the film festival? That's not a bad idea!
- I guess so (expression): maybe; I'm not sure e.g. Do you think this is the right direction? I guess so.
- wrong way (expression): not the correct direction
e.g. We are going the wrong way. The store is in the opposite direction.
- bank (noun): the building where you put your money
e.g. Let's go to the bank and get some cash for our trip.
- police officer (noun): a person who enforces the law
e.g. Police officers help stop crime.
- you can't miss it (expression): it is easy to see e.g. The park is on this street. You can't miss it!
- intersection (noun): the place where two streets meet e.g. Meet me at the intersection of Main and Front streets.
- to have to (verb): to be necessary
e.g. We have to leave before 10 p.m.

Learning Points

The Imperative to Give Directions

Use the Imperative to give a person directions and to repeat them. You do not use the subject, so the verb is stressed.

Verb (+ Preposition) + Object

Walk down the street.

Go straight down the hall.

Examples:

- Walk down this street to Exhibition Place.
- Go back along this street to the intersection.
- Turn right at the corner.

Giving Directions

You use a preposition or an expression when you give directions.

Expression	Preposition
straight ahead	to the intersection
go back along	at the intersection
the wrong way	along the street
turn right

Examples:

- Walk along Liberty street to the intersection.
- The park is at the intersection of Main and Liberty.
